HENROCK

Henrock is an informal and relaxed restaurant from chef and restaurateur Simon Rogan, set within Linthwaite House in the hills above Lake Windermere.

The team creates a frequently changing à la carte menu inspired by the chefs' travels around the world and which also utilises local ingredients. True to Simon Rogan's farm-to-table ethos and deep-rooted respect for natural ingredients, much of the produce comes from his own farm, Our Farm, located just a few miles away in the Cartmel Valley.

The Henrock team is committed to sustainability and moving towards producing zero waste. The growers and chefs work together to implement innovative growing methods that result in near-perfect produce in a regenerative and sustainable environment.

LAKELAND VILLAGES

In the picturesque South Lakes region, medieval Cartmel, located approximately 25 miles from Linthwaite House, exudes history and charm, boasting an ancient priory at its heart and renowned attractions like the racecourse and l'enclume, a Michelin-starred culinary gem. The village hosts vibrant events drawing in crowds, earning it the moniker 'a thimble full of diamonds' from Chris Evans. Accessible via the A590, its strategic location links to Ulverston, Kendal, Dalton, and Barrow, with ample parking available, though limited during bustling events. Meanwhile, in the heart of the Lake District, Hawkshead enchants with its historic allure, quaint architecture, and winding streets revealing tales of its past, approximately 7 miles from Linthwaite House. Culinary delights abound in Hawkshead, offering diverse local treats from pizzas to exquisite relishes. Beyond the village, explore neighbouring attractions like Far Sawry, Hill Top, or ascend local fells for stunning vistas. In Grasmere, situated around 5 miles away, Wordsworth's legacy echoes through charming gift shops, eateries, and the iconic Dove Cottage, while its famed Gingerbread continues to delight gastronomes globally. Finally, nestled at the foot of Langdale valleys, Elterwater captivates with its stunning vistas, village green, and historic Britannia Inn, offering a slice of rustic history alongside serene lakeside walks leading to Chesters by the River, approximately 9 miles from Linthwaite House.

BREWERIES AND DISTILLERIES

In the heart of the Lake District, breweries and distilleries create a tapestry of craftsmanship and innovation. Hawkshead Brewery, established in 2002 near Hawkshead village and now situated approximately 7 miles from Linthwaite House in Staveley's Mill Yard since 2006, boasts intense hop-flavoured craft beers and a modern Brewhouse. Their inclusive ethos welcomes everyone, including pets, offering delightful food alongside their brews at the popular Beer Hall. Near Bassenthwaite Lake, The Lakes Distillery, located roughly 20 miles from Linthwaite House within a restored Victorian farm, serves as a vibrant hub inviting visitors into an active distillery. Experience immersive tours, exploring the cask warehouse where spirits mature, amidst a family-friendly environment with alpacas and a cosy café. Meanwhile, Grasmere Brewery & Distillery, deeply entrenched in the community and positioned around 5 miles away from Linthwaite House, employs locals and supports communal growth. Their fusion of traditional methods with contemporary flair results in high-quality beverages, reflecting a dedication to both heritage and innovation.
